MOCA annual membership provides members with access to the MOCA Supply Channel, participation in the development of standards, best practices and other industry specific programs that are offered from time to time. Members are expected to abide by the MOCA code of conduct, to share information while keeping confidential any materials and information that may be learned about other MOCA members.

The primary objectives of MOCA are:

- ✓ To provide services and undertake activities that enhance the members' ability to operate a successful business
  - ✓ Develop current standards to enhance the acceptance of MgO ceramic-cement board products
  - ✓ Maintain a QA Supply Channel to reduce the frequency of non-compliant products
    - ✓ Increase the awareness and acceptance of MgO cement products
    - ✓ Help solve issues between members, customers and suppliers
      - ✓ Develop relationships with related associations
      - ✓ Conduct research, testing and related activities
      - ✓ Work with code officials
